ABOUT POWER

The system has a series of functional processes which enable or is aimed at providing the system with the capability of achieving the required targeted functions and efficiency needed to satisfy the "users" in monitoring the amount of current an appliance is consuming. These processes include the following. They are:

- ✓ Putting the Socket on/off remotely.

- ✓ Calculating the amount of current an appliance consumes.

- ✓ Converting the consumption calculated into electricity tariffs charged per Ghana cedis.